

Essential Questions for Catcher in the Rye

Students will keep considering:

1. How can novels help us understand the problems of realizing who we are, finding ourselves?
2. How do writers create such memorable characters?
3. What makes you naturally an observer or a participator in life?
4. In what ways does the effectiveness of the author's use of literary techniques provoke an understanding of identity?