Greetings, Wise Fools—

We've got lots to do today, so let's get cracking!

1. WEDGE—Like Holden, Calvin and Hobbes seem to experience some confusion about the differences between stasis and change. The humor in the strip arises from a misunderstanding, right?

For roughly ten minutes, tell a story about a time when you were young and suffered from a misunderstanding about how the world works. As you draft, try to provide specific details about exposition (setting + characters) and vivid multisensory imagery that would allow an audience of ignorant animals to experience the events vicariously!

2. Quick Review of a Recent Quiz—We'll take a look at the most recent quiz in order to continue to fine-tune our reading skills.

3. Getting a Jump on the Homework?—Time permitting, of course.

Tappa! Tappa! Tappa!—
Mr Leo

Homework:

1. If you have not been doing so already, review the introduction to themes and motifs in The Catcher in the Rye.
2. Extend and review your notes in anticipation of our final reading comprehension quiz based on the final chapters of The Catcher in the Rye.
