

29 & 30 November 2016

Cyanide & Happiness

image from <http://explosm.net/>

Greetings, AmLit Scholars—

Please place both hard copies of Peer Review #1 and the annotated Peer Review Draft where I can check/collect them while you are WEDGE-ing.

Here's how we'll roll today:

1. WEDGE—Any time writing is due, we'll engage in a little metawriting during WEDGE! So: consider your third Peer Review of the semester:

A. Process: Describe how you completed the work.

B. Product: What do you think of the quality of your Peer Review? What are its strengths? Where might it be improved?

In considering both Process and Product, jot down any ways in which you might work differently the next time you craft a Peer Review.

2. Peer Review Debriefing—We'll take time to talk about the work that is due today in order to clarify any concerns that need, well, clarifying.

3. Doc Swap!

4. Preview/Begin the Homework—The bulk of today's class meeting will be dedicated to writing the second Peer Review. During this time, you might want to begin by reading the Peer Review you received so you might extend your understanding of Peer Reviews through careful consideration of the work of your classmates. Please use your time to your best advantage!

5. Individual Debriefings of PR #1—While you are working, I will hold quick conferences with members of the class to talk about PR #1.

Tappa! Tappa! Tappa!—

Mr Leo

Homework:

Please consult the handout for TSPNfaAoS.