Greetings, IBsters—

Because I am ill this morning, we'll have to postpone our production of Oedipus Tyrannos.

Please use your time during class to review the three plays we read over Winter Break. Pay careful attention to elements of those plays that parallel, imitate, or respond to elements of the earlier text by Sophocles.

If you finish this review during class, you may work on assignments in other courses.

Be good to your sub.

Thanks, and see you soon—
Mr Leo
