

22/23 February 2017

The games get pretty crazy at English teachers' parties.

image from http://lauramaylenewalter.com/wp-content/uploads/2012/11/apostrophe\_pinning.jpg

Greetings, Wise Fools—

Here's how we'll roll today:

1. WEDGE—We've been working so assiduously on analytical writing that it would probably be good for our brains to try a little something different.

How about some narrative? For roughly ten minutes, write about the funniest moment you have ever witnessed. As you draft, try to provide the specific details (exposition and imagery) that would allow an audience of ignorant animals to experience the events vicariously.

2. Debriefing Peer Review #1—By this point you should have all read my responses at Turnitin.com. If you have not, the website has already tattled on you.

Before we work on completing PR #2, we will talk for as long as we need to about creating effective Peer Reviews. I will count on YOU to drive the conversation.

3. Completing Peer Review #2

Tappa! Tappa! Tappa!—
Mr Leo

Homework:

1. Complete Peer Review #2.
2. Upload your Peer Review #2 to Turnitin.com prior to the start of our next class meeting.
3. Print two (2) hard copies of your Peer Review #2.
4. Bring the two (2) hard copies AND the annotated PR Draft to class.