Greetings, IBsters—

While I miss you often, it's pretty safe to say that I have never wished harder that I was in your presence than I did on Sunday.

Here's how we'll roll today:

1a. WEDGE—For roughly ten minutes, we'll compose our thoughts about the art of crafting successful Paper 1s. Yes: I know that you wrote on this topic for homework. But we're always looking for opportunities for additional reinforcement. Plus: I'm hoping that a little scritch-scratch-scratch will get you revved up for agenda item #2.

1b. Immediate Revision Activity

2. Talking About Paper 1s—For one of the last times.

3. Previewing the Next Peer Reviews— We will not annotate the Paper 1. The PRs will be essays only. They will be formal. They will be keyed to the IB Paper 1 rubric. One will be due when next we meet.

4. Document Distribution

5. Work Period—If we have stayed focused, we should have a pretty good chunk of time for this work.

Scratch, scratch, scratch—
Mr Leo

Homework:

1. Complete Paper 1 PR#1.
2. Upload Paper 1 PR #1 to Turnitin.com.
3. Bring one (1) hard copy of Paper 1 PR#1 to class.
