Greetings, IBsters—

I was determined to find a perfect graphic to match today's class plan. And then I gave up.

Here's how we'll roll today:

1. (Last) WEDGE (Ever)—For roughly twenty minutes, exercise your graphomotor muscles by writing about, oh, well... you decide.

2. IRA—I know this might sound really weird, but it would make good sense to practice ~~TYDY~~ tidy revisions.

3. Returning the Mock Paper 1—We'll see what we can see by revisiting this very strong set of essays.

4. Wrapping Up Fugard—I will follow your inclinations here.

5. Prepping for the Mock Paper 2

Scratch! Scratch! Scratch!—

Mr Leo

Homework:

Gird yourselves in anticipation of our final Mock Paper 2. Please remember to arrive in the classroom on Thursday for a 9:30 start.
