The Assignment: This project consists of four interrelated endeavors:

- I. Craft a brief literary analysis essay outline that compares and/or contrasts subjects derived from two (2) of the short stories we have read.
- II. Transform that essay outline into a five-minute oral presentation supported by a visual aid.
- III. Deliver the oral presentation to your classmates.
- IV. Participate actively and respectfully in the presentations offered by your classmates.

N.B. Assume responsibility for any technology preparation your presentation may require!

N.B. Assume responsibility for meeting MLA-format expectations for acknowledging outside sources of words, ideas, graphics, and structures.
