

28 & 29 May 2017

Not a Green Light at the End of a Dock, But Still,
A Symbol

image from <http://blog.oregonlive.com/runoregon/2009/05/Eugene-Marathon-Finish-View.JPG>

Greetings, Almost-Seniors—

Welcome to the last class plan of the year!

1. Quick Preview of Exam Info—In the figurative nutshell, because, you know, I don't have a literal nutshell in which I could provide this information, here's what you need to know:

When is the exam? Tuesday, 30 May 2017 ; 9:00-11:00.

Where is the exam? MS 327

What must I bring to the exam? Pens containing blue, black, or blue-black ink.

Any other questions?

2. Work Period—We will dedicate most of the remainder of the period to preparing for the semester exam or completing other work. You may work individually or in collaboration with classmates.

3. Distribution of Summer Reading—Mr White has left a present for you!

4. Work Submission—Your WWE is already uploaded to Turnitin.com, right? Do you have any other work that needs completing?

5. Talking about LORs—In the final minutes of the class meeting, we'll talk about what to do if you're hoping that you can weasel a letter of recommendation out of me. There's a document posted to the Moodle page that will help you toward enlightenment.

Today, there will be NO

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=2fAE56npKj4> —

Mr Leo